to its fullest extent. It is better for the man of limited means, believes Doctor McCampbell, to raise horses only as a by-product, because the exclusive raising of draft horses for market requires considerable capital. The returns at first are slow, for draft horses must be six years old before they are ready for market. The man who has other cash crops to meet his expenses can afford to wait for the returns from his young

Calomel Salivates! It Makes You Sick and You Lose a Day's Work -Dodson's Liver Tone Acts Better Than Calomel and Is Harm-

Every druggist in the South-your druggist and everyhody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calotnel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it while Dodson's Liver Tone is safe and gives better results," said a prominent druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist and medicine dealer. A large family-sized bottle costs only 50 cents and if you find it doesn't take the place of dangerous, salivating calomel you have only to sak for your money

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES ALL HER LIFE

Nov. 23, 1914;-"All my life my face was covered completely with a mass of pimples, blackheads and blotches. I spent a lot of money on numerous remedies and treatments without success and no relief at all. I tried so many things that I was afraid my case could not be cured. Resinol ointment and resinci soap seemed to do me good right from the first. I used two jams of resinci cintment and some resinci soap, the total cost being only $3.00, and this completely cured my case. TOO MUCH FOR JUDGE GARY

Youthful Lawyer Made Technical Error in Billiard Contest With Legal Veteran.

Judge Martin, as a young lawyer and on first arrival in Chicago, thought himself fortunate in gaining an introduction to Judge Gary-the Gary who tried the anarchists. The judge took a shine to the young chap and proposed a game of billiards, wherein Martin made a technical error that he remembered for long. Gary played years a sufferer from stomach troubles an old man's game, and Martin then, —in part a result of his confining as now, was particularly handy with an old man's game, and Martin then, B CHS.

Picture a content of 34 points with four balls on a four and one-half by nine table. The judge (barely bending), with a childish bridge and a nerveless stroke, missed his first shot. Martin, in shirtsleeves, crouched over the table like a jockey piloting a winner, and applied himself to rolling up a run. He had counted fifteen or twenty when he turned and saw the judge disappearing through the door and moving with ruffled dignity.

Couldn't Part

Louis Halle was a colonel on Governor Yates' staff, and in that capacity accompanied him to Washington to be a part of an inaugural parade. All the colonels had uniforms a-plenty, but it was decided to rely upon the Washington supply of horses instead of taking the mounts along.

The governor sat on his horse awaiting the parade formation, and from time to time an orderly would gallop up with an official communication. On each occasion Colonel Halle was by his side. At last the governor observed:

"Colonel Halle, I see no necessity for your sticking to this orderly in the performance of his duties."

"There isn't any," admitted Halle, "but, you see, our horses are a lifelong team."
